

Deborah was born and raised in the Washington, DC area. She retired from the Federal Government with over 30 years of service. During her 30+ years of service she has gained a variety of experience in the fields of Administration, Personnel, Budget procurement/contracting activities (Interagency Agreements, and Requisitions), and Electrical experience with agencies like the Department of Defense, Department of Transportation, and The National Archives. During Deborah 30+ years of federal service she has 16 years of working at the National Science Foundation with experience working in the Office of Inspector General, and other Directorates in processing federal grants. Deborah has Federal Government Training from the Human Resources Institute, and ESI/George Washington University School of Business concentrated on (Federal Budget Skills); (Basics of Federal Contracting) and (Basic Governmental Auditing). Deborah attended the Virginia State University's Sustainable Urban Agriculture Certification Program (SUACP), which gives her the knowledge and experience in Urban Agriculture Operations, Concept of a food desert, Site Planning, Potential Obstacles, Basic Botany Life Cycle of flowering plants, Plant disease management, Environmental factors affect plant growth, and Cultivation and cropping systems